New Business:

Community Development Director Julia Leahy was present to explain the need to make changes for the location of the Delphi Main Street "Do it in Delphi" market. The current location was passed to be on Washington St. With several closures within a short time period, it was discussed that the market be moved to Market Street for the remainder of the year for safety, traffic, and other concerns. She stated there are currently 27 vendors participating in the market. Motion to amend the previous location and change it from Washington St. to Market St. made by Spencer Kingery, seconded by Breanna Maxwell. Motion carried and passed. (3-0)
